

Continental Memorial Hall

Where Daughters of the American Revolution Meet April 14th to 19th Inclusive

Portico of Continental Memorial Hall.

A. Millerand, with high hat, former minister of war, who has been appointed the first Governor of Alsace-Lorraine.

Photo by Central News Service.

The establishment in Washington of a headquarters for the republican women's national executive committee has marked the official entrance of women in national politics. This is a typical working group at the headquarters. At left—Mrs. George W. Reinecke, executive secretary; standing, Miss Flora Payne Whitney, volunteer secretary to the chairman. At right—Mrs. Medill McCormick, chairman.

Copyright by Harris & Ewing.